

Letter 006
The Hague, 24th March 1875

Dear Theo,

Would you kindly find out if there is still a picture by Schotel in Brussels? It was sent from here on commission May 6, 1870. Perhaps Uncle has already sent it back to Paris; but if not, please have it returned here immediately. We have a chance of selling it, but it is urgent. Last summer I saw it at your gallery, so I think it may still be there.

Give my compliments to Uncle and Aunt, Mr. Schmidt and Eduard.

I suppose you have got my letter already. Adieu and best wishes.

Vincent.
